A Shetland Notebook

One of Britain's foremost printmakers, Norman Ackroyd has spent a lifetime recording the coastal landscapes of the British Isles. Gorgeously printed, A Shetland Notebook contains 39 of his vivid landscape sketches in watercolor. Made in the open air, often aboard a pitching and tossing fishing boat, these lively, spontaneous works capture the unique atmosphere of these remote and beautiful islands. The notebook's unusual format is due entirely to the artist, who uses sheets of various types of paper torn to fit into a loose-leaf binder made from two pieces of wooden picture-backing; this he tucks into his coat pocket, ready for use whenever the need arises. His engaging com

Hand Drawn Halifax: Portraits of the city's buildings, landmarks, neighbourhoods and residents

Emma FitzGerald sketches Halifax and its residents vividly, in colour. She effortlessly catches moments in the life of the city. While she draws, she keeps notes on what she sees -- and what people say to her. She has an ear, as well as an eye. In this sketchbook readers will find spots they

The Missouri Persecutions

The Missouri Persecutions is a fair and balanced look at the early history and unfortunate conflicts of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. Written by B.H. Roberts, one of the Church's best known defenders, it tells the tragic story of conflict, betrayal, and war, as the early "Mormon

Dynasty of Evil (Star Wars: Darth Bane, Book 3)

Twenty years have passed since Darth Bane, reigning Dark Lord of the Sith, demolished the ancient order devoted to the dark side and reinvented it as a circle of two: one Master to wield the power and pass on the wisdom, and one apprentice to learn, challenge, and ultimately usurp the Dark Lord in

What others say about this ebook:

Review 1:

This is one of the most beautiful books of watercolor art I have ever held in my hands. Ackroyd pushes the medium- using wax resist, scraping, scrubbing and washing with results that show him to be a worthy descendent of JMW Turner. The landscapes are transporting.
