What others say about this ebook:

Review 1:

I have read Ms Boyle before but had missed a lot. After I read this one I am going back to read the entire series. She is very good, and in the class of Layton, Veryan, and Balogh

Review 2:

Racy and fun, like all Ms. Boyle's romances. It certainly isn't for the faint of heart, in terms of the sexy stuff, but there's always Georgette Heyer and Marion Chesney if you prefer a tamer but equally amusing and well-written Regency romance.

Review 3:

Delightful read. A nice continue to the series. Good characters and enough plot to make it interesting. Characters could use more depth

Review 4:

one of her better writings enjoyed it very much , this is more to my liking.

Review 5:

I have enjoyed getting to know these heroes and heroines that while they may have not had good experiences in the past continue to labor on forward and look to the future with spirit and energy that speaks of grit and positive attitudes, while they may not have learned from their previous errors they muddle on with excellent outcomes.
